KAP Team for 2011

Winnipeg – Keystone Agricultural Producers (KAP) is pleased to announce the election of its President and Vice Presidents following the KAP annual meeting held January 26 to 28, 2011.

Doug Chorney, President

Doug Chorney is a producer from East Selkirk, where he lives with his wife Michelle and daughter Erin. Cereal, oilseeds and forage seed crops make up most of the 1500 acres on his farm, however, Doug also grows and sells fresh vegetables right off the farm. Doug was elected Vice President at KAP's 2010 annual meeting.

Rob Brunel, Vice President

Rob Brunel, his wife Erin, their daughter Myley and son Larsen live in Ste. Rose du Lac, where they operate a fourth-generation grains and oilseeds farm. Rob was appointed to serve as interim President at KAP's General Council on October 14, 2010. He was elected to his fourth term as Vice President at KAP's 2011 annual meeting.

Dan Mazier, Vice President

Dan Mazier and his wife Leigh along with their children Hannah and Mike live near the village of Justice, located northeast of Brandon. Dan farms with his brother and shares equipment for a grain and oilseeds farm. He has served on the KAP Executive and on various other committees.
