Manitoba Farmers to Meet at KAP Annual

Winnipeg – Farmers from across Manitoba will gather in Winnipeg this week for Keystone Agricultural Producers’ (KAP) major policy setting event of the year. KAP hosts its 26th annual meeting at the Delta Winnipeg from Wednesday, January 27 to Friday, January 29.

The meeting provides an engaging forum for dialogue, collaboration and learning. This is where decisions are made on the future of agricultural policy. A full agenda is planned with a series of outstanding speakers who will share their technical knowledge, on-the-ground expertise, and vision on a wide range of agricultural topics.

Manitoba Agriculture, Food and Rural Initiatives Minister, Hon. Stan Struthers, will address the delegates on Wednesday, January 27 at 1:30 pm.

KAP’s Young Farmers Committee is also hosting a one-day session open to all farmers under the age of 40. It will focus on marketing, business planning, health and safety and production.
