

David Rolfe,
President

David Rolfe was first elected as KAP President during its 2004 annual meeting and was re-elected to his fourth and final term in 2007.

Previously, David served as Vice President of KAP (2002 to 2004), and has previously represented his district as an executive member (2000 to 2001), and the red meats sector (1997 to 1998).

He currently chairs KAP's business risk management, food safety and quality, and trade committees. David also represents Manitoba farmers on the national level on a wide range of boards and associations.

He operates an 1,800 acre grains and oilseeds farm near Elgin with his wife, Fay. They have two sons, James & Andrew.

Ian Wishart,
Vice President

Ian Wishart operates Agasea Farms near Portage la Prairie with his wife Leslie. Ian was first elected Vice President of KAP at its 2004 annual meeting, and is currently serving his fourth one-year term in this position. He currently chairs KAP's environment and assesment & taxation committees.

Ian is the driving force behind Alternate Land Use Services (ALUS), a conservation program that puts the emphasis on farmers' contributions to the environment, which launched a pilot project in Manitoba in 2005.

The Wisharts' farm is split between forages, specialty crops, and potatoes, with a 200 head cow/calf operation. Ian and his wife Leslie have two daughters, Rhainan and CJ.

Robert McLean,
Vice President

Robert McLean, his wife Marina, and their son Don farm near Manitou, with a diversified mix of crops and livestock. In addition to a cow-calf and hog finishing operation, the McLeans also manage 1,800 acres in grains and oilseeds. He was re-elected to his second one-year term as Vice President at its 2007 annual meeting.

Robert has previously served as co-chair of KAP's livestock committee. He currently chairs the finance committee. Robert has also represented his community as a municipal councilor and reeve, and has an ongoing interest in infrastructure and transportation issues. He also works through KAP to promote foods grown and made in Manitoba.

Robert and Marina have two children, Don and Lisa.

Yvonne Rideout,
General Manager

Yvonne Rideout joined KAP as the General Manager in 2000. She began her career in agricultural policy in 1991, and has participated on the provincial and national scenes since that time.

Yvonne has had the opportunity to participate in the Canadian Federation of Agriculture. She has also served on the Board of Directors of the Canadian Agricultural Safety Association for four years.

During her term with KAP, Yvonne has been involved in all aspects of implementing policy as well as managing the Winnipeg office. Her main areas of interest include business risk management, environment, trade, and taxation.
