Manitoba Farmers to Meet at KAP Annual

Winnipeg – Farmers from across Manitoba will soon be gathering in Winnipeg for Keystone Agricultural Producers’ 23rd annual meeting, which focuses on Managing the Business of Farming. A full agenda is planned, with dozens of resolutions ready to be debated along with a series of informative and interesting speakers. The annual meeting is KAP’s major policy setting event.

KAP’s Young Farmers Committee is also hosting a one-day session open to all farmers under the age of 40. It will focus on marketing opportunities, the business practices adopted by leading young farmers, and will help to familiarize this group with KAP and its role.

What: KAP Annual Meeting
When: Wednesday, January 24 at 1:00 pm to Friday, January 26 at 12:00 pm
Where: Delta Winnipeg

What: KAP Young Farmers Session
When: Thursday, January 25
Where: Delta Winnipeg

Gerald Tumbleson of the National Corn Growers Association is Friday’s keynote speaker, and his presentation will focus on alternate energy and the benefits to producers. Kevin Hursh, noted agricultural commentator, will be speaking about managing a farm business on Thursday, January 25. KAP is also pleased to welcome back Bob Friesen, President of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, to give a national update on current agricultural issues. There will also be sessions on farm safety, broadband service, and farm management tools.

Delegates will also elect KAP’s President and two Vice Presidents during the meeting. A complete agenda for the KAP annual meeting, as well as the Young Farmers Session, is posted at www.kap.mb.ca and is also available from the KAP office.
