KAP Elects New President, VPs

Winnipeg – Keystone Agricultural Producers (KAP) is pleased to announce the election of a new President and two Vice Presidents, following its annual meeting last week.

Ian Wishart was elected to his first term as President, after having served four years in the position of Vice President. He runs a mixed farm operation near Portage la Prairie. His areas of interest and expertise include environmental issues, education finance, and business risk management.

Robert McLean, a grain and livestock farmer from Manitou, was elected to serve his third one-year term as Vice President. He continues to be very involved in rail and highway transportation issues as well as KAP's livestock committee.

Rob Brunel, a grain & oilseeds farmer from Ste. Rose du Lac, was elected to his first term as Vice President. He currently chairs KAP's Young Farmers Committee and is the Manitoba-Saskatchewan representative on the Canadian Young Farmers Forum.
